*You make the discovery,
You shove off the lid
and the light is blinding
and you gaze into infinity;
every person is sacred,
nothing is profane.*

LLOYD REYNOLDS

"On 18 October 1974, twenty interested scribes and letter-lovers met at the home of Georgianna Greenwood in Berkeley to discuss the possibility of organizing a Bay Area group for calligraphy. Everyone at the meeting agreed that such an organization would be welcome and most felt membership should be open to anyone interested who wanted to get together occasionally and exchange ideas."

*From a letter dated February 1975,
signed by members of the first Council:
Georgianna Greenwood,
Bill Davidson, Antonia Smith,
John Kennedy and Don Moy.*
